THE OPPORTUNITY AGENDA’S CREATIVE CHANGE 2013: A RETREAT AT SUNDANCE AT THE INTERSECTION OF ARTS, ACTIVISM, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Monday, August 5 – Friday, August 9, 2013

The Opportunity Agenda is pleased to recognize the generous support of the Akonadi Foundation, The Compton Foundation, Embrey Family Foundation, Ford Foundation, Lambent Foundation, Mott Philanthropic, Nathan Cummings Foundation, the Open Society Foundations, Surdna Foundation, Time Warner Foundation and Unbound Philanthropy for this year’s retreat.
Welcome to The Opportunity Agenda’s 2013 Creative Change Retreat!

On behalf of all of us at The Opportunity Agenda, we want to offer you a warm welcome to this, our fifth retreat. We are delighted that you’ve made the journey to Sundance and ask that you take a moment to put aside your organization, campaign, or personal to-do list, step out of your established role and step forward into this fun, thought-provoking, and engaging place of reflection, human connection, and collaboration. Don’t forget that your ideas and inspiration are vital to its success.

The coming days are an opportunity to dream big about ways we can work together for positive change at the crossroads of arts and social justice. We’ve gathered another amazing group of folks drawn from the diverse worlds of arts, advocacy, grassroots organizing, philanthropy and entertainment—some you might know, some you might have heard of and, hopefully, many you might not know at all. We’re here not only to connect one-on-one, but also to use our multiple connections across fields, issues, mediums, communities and geographies to plant seeds, cross-pollinate, and harvest cultural transformation.

As we do each year, we have reshaped the design of the retreat in response to alumni feedback. We are once again returning to Sundance, a stunning place committed to artists and the natural world. We will be delving deeper into how our alumni network can empower us all in more sustainable and effective ways and we’ll be engaging more “real world” projects as part of our popular Design Team collaborative process. You’ll see all of those conversations (and more) reflected in this year’s agenda.

And, to use this fifth year as an inflection point, we are finalizing a multi-layered evaluation process examining both the qualitative and quantitative impact of Creative Change. It is our hope that the learning will not only keep the retreat vibrant but also help us evolve The Opportunity Agenda’s creative work for the future.

As Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. said, “our goal is to create a beloved community and this will require a qualitative change in our souls as well as a quantitative change in our lives.” Let’s open ourselves up to the creative force in all of us that can envision and take active steps to make real a better world.

Thank you for spending these five days with us. We hope to create an open and respectful space that honors your contribution to it!

Best regards,

Alan Jenkins

Wireless and Computers
The Sundance Resort provides high-speed wireless internet access in your hotel room. Select “Sundance Wireless” for your user connection. Your password will be your reservation number that will be given to you upon check-in. We recommend that participants bring personal laptops, and those with Macs should bring a VGA adapter to project images and video. In common areas such as the Redford Conference Center, please use “Sundance Dayguest.” The password is CC2013.

Social Media and Privacy
Creative Change participants bring varying experience with social media, and the retreat presents an opportunity for sharing of methodology and best practices. For participants who choose to share their Creative Change experience with other participants, as well as those who can’t join us, the retreat’s Twitter hashtag is #CreativeChange. The Design Teams are also encouraged to create and use their own hashtags to continue the conversation on specific issues or ideas.

In using social media throughout the event and posting pictures following the event, please be respectful of the privacy of other participants and the sensitive nature of conversations that occur here. Social media users are asked to not discuss participants by name or to tag others in photos without first securing their permission. Additionally, social media participation should be reserved for breaks and free time, particularly given that program sessions are considered “no phone zones.”
WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT SUNDANCE

Created by Robert Redford, Sundance is a haven for discovery and inspiration that offers diverse mountain recreation experiences year round. Sundance is situated at the base of 12,000-foot Mt. Timpanogos on 5,000 acres of preserved wilderness, and is committed to the balance of art, nature, and recreation. Here are some tips for your visit:

- Temperatures fluctuate and a 30-degree temperature swing in one day is not unusual. While daytime highs can reach 90 degrees, nighttime lows sink to the mid 50s.
- Dress in layers: August at Sundance is hot and sunny with fairly low humidity and cooler evenings. Nevertheless, the occasional brief afternoon thunderstorm is not unusual. Come prepared for possible rainfall.
- Please bring a warm hat and a wind resistant/fleece-style jacket, heavy shawl, or other similar cover-up. We will be doing an outdoor barbecue, and by the time the sun goes down it will be very cold. We would hate for you to leave the event early due to lack of appropriate clothing.
- Apply and re-apply sunscreen and lip balm to exposed areas.
- A brimmed hat and sunglasses are recommended to protect your eyes from the glare.
- Drinking extra water and minimizing your alcohol intake can help you adapt to the altitude.
- Please bring old sneakers or trail shoes for low- to medium-impact hiking and walking. We will be walking through water and mud, so you should expect that they will get dirty.
- There is NO town in walking distance from the resort. There is a small shop in the main building with toiletries, but if you need prescriptions, specific foods, or other items, you will have to get a taxi to the nearest town. This will be very inconvenient for you, so we recommend that you pack well!

GETTING AROUND SUNDANCE RESORT BY SHUTTLE

For shuttles from the lodging rooms, guests can touch the operator or front desk button or call extension 4020 or extension 0 to place their requests. We recommend calling the front desk to request a shuttle at least 15 minutes prior to the desired departure time.

EVALUATION TEAM

Two participants at the retreat — Diane Espaldon and Rinku Sen (from the Applied Research Center) — are part of the team working with The Opportunity Agenda staff to conduct an evaluation of the Creative Change retreat and the impact it has had. They will be participating in sessions throughout the week and may be asking you questions as well. Please note that they will be holding comments in confidence and not attributing any comments to your name without your permission.

POP-UP ART EXHIBIT

Artists around the country have developed art posters and infographics meant to inspire, educate, and agitate. This year, we will once again mount a “pop-up” art exhibition featuring recent prints and posters inspired by social movements produced by Creative Change attendees Melanie Cervantes, Jesus Barraza, Nina Montenegro, and Favianna Rodriguez. Come see how artists from our network are responding and collaborating around immigrant, economic, reproductive, and environmental justice. There will also be a table set up to accompany the exhibition where you can share your own organization, campaign or project’s posters and other materials.

SPECIAL THANKS

The Opportunity Agenda’s Creative Change 2013 builds on the success of and learning from the past four retreats at Sundance (2012 & 2011), Santa Fe (2010), and Telluride (2009). Therefore, special thanks go out to all who participated in these years, and especially returning alumni. Their participation, artistic energy, and innovative brand of activism provided the inspiration and new ideas for this year’s retreat.

Thank you to our 2013 Advisory Team for their ideas, support, and planning, including Michelle Coffey, Wendy Levy, Gibrán X. Rivera, Favianna Rodriguez, Brandi Stewart, Darnell Strom and Molly Sturges.

A very special thank you to Jason P. Drucker for his extraordinary vision and leadership in helping to found, nurture, and advance Creative Change. Although he has moved on to a new organization, we are delighted that he remains a vital member of our network.

Thanks to Gibrán X. Rivera from Interaction Institute for Social Change for his facilitation as well as his collaboration in the creation and evolution of Creative Change.

The Opportunity Agenda’s Creative Change 2013 was designed and produced by staff from The Opportunity Agenda including a team led by Betsy Theobald Richards with the amazing support of Jennifer Weiser and Ross Mudrick. We also would like to thank Jean Little for her wonderful work coordinating logistics and technical needs and our colleagues Ellen Braune, Jill Mizell, Elizabeth Celms, Annie Wang, and Kisha Parks for assistance leading up to and at the retreat.

Finally, we wish to express our thanks to The Opportunity Agenda’s Creative Change alumna Cara Mertes for originally introducing us to the host location for this year’s retreat, as well as key Sundance Resort staff including Katie Todd, Kelsey EchoHawk, Blain Wilkey, and Chad Linebaugh.

About The Opportunity Agenda

The Opportunity Agenda was launched in 2006 with the mission of building the national will to expand opportunity in America. Focused on moving hearts, minds and policy over time, the organization works closely with social justice organizations, leaders, and movements to advocate for solutions that expand opportunity for everyone. Through active partnerships, The Opportunity Agenda uses communications and media to understand and influence public opinion; synthesizes and translates research on barriers to opportunity and promising solutions; and identifies and advocates for policies that improve people’s lives. To learn more about The Opportunity Agenda, go to our website at www.opportunityagenda.org.

The Opportunity Agenda is a project of Tides Center.
